GATHERING THE STONES

alternatives to the
New World Order

by Bruce Conway

Preface

Gathering the Stones evolved out of a free eBook I wrote in 1999 entitled Twenty-one Tips to Transit (21 TTT). Because of the on-line popularity of 21 TTT I was motivated to expand the contents into a broader and more comprehensive volume. Gathering the Stones (GTS) resulted from these efforts. The full text of the original 21 TTT is included in the resource section following this book.

When the U.S. presidential election fiasco took place in 2000, the direction of these writings shifted considerably. Then the attacks of September 11 occurred, and changed all of our lives forever. From that time on, GTS has been revised repeatedly in an attempt to assimilate the rapid political, economic, and security changes, and the parade of atrocities conducted by the current U.S. administration and their allies.

This book begins by acknowledging America's spiraling descent into darkness and fascism, then proceeds to map out an illuminated path for readers to follow back into the light. GTS offers methods for empowering ourselves and our communities through cooperation, sustainability and self reliance. By transforming the ways in which we live, we can recover our independence, regain our economic security and lost freedoms, and begin making our way towards a bright future.

This book shows readers how to oppose the ruling elite, while retaining our finer qualities: ethics, spirit, compassion, adaptability, and humanity. The goal of GTS is to provide alternatives to the New World Order while helping to establish secure, sustainable, self-governing, and prosperous life-styles.

GTS teaches methods for disempower the ruling elite through reeducation, noncooperation, civil disobedience, and boycotting elite corporations and products. By employing these peaceful and effective methods we stop supporting the tyrants, monkey-wrench their vast empire, and derail their plans for global conquest.

The ruling elite presently control the governments of America, England, Israel, Australia, Switzerland, China, Russia, and many smaller nations. They dominate international banking, numerous monetary systems, and hundreds of multinational corporations.

At the core of the ruling elite are thirteen powerful families, all of whom are descended from the bloodlines of ancient nobility. They are the most powerful, wealthiest, and secretive men on Earth. The elite's vast holdings exceed fifty percent the entire Earth's available resources.

To compound the problem, the elite are rotten to the core. When it is said that "absolute power corrupts absolutely," the ruling elite embody this truism. Their crimes against humanity are extensive, and their disregard for the lives and well-being of ordinary people is legendary. We are seen as cattle, useful but expendable. It is up to us, the common folk of planet Earth, to rise up against the elite and take back our freedoms, our lives, and our world. It is time for our vast human herds to stampede.

The blue-bloods will not give up the reins of power voluntarily. This is the real world, and we must expect extensive forms of retaliation to result from our actions. Because of this certainty, it will be necessary to protect ourselves from the actions of the tyrants, and insure our own safety and well-being. GTS addresses these issues thoroughly, and offers a wealth of practical advice on the topic.

For several decades we have virtually ignored the misbehavior of big business and elected politicians, focusing instead upon our own personal needs and desires. These lapses were fully capitalized upon by the ruling elite. Today's dismal situation is proof of our decades of denial, and reflect the crime, corruption, and violence that have become the hallmarks of our culture. It is time to rectify these mistakes.

Now there are important decisions to be made. We must either choose to remain cowards trembling in the darkness, or to find the courage to return back into the light. Many are making the correct choices, and are bravely refusing to participate in the tyrants dark plans. Many others will choose to support the elite, and we must fight them also.

Without our support and compliance the elite's plans for global rule cannot succeed. As millions of us refuse to cooperate with them, and begin living our lives in rational and sustainable ways, we will begin manifesting the solutions necessary to preserve ourselves and our world.

In 2004 another U.S. Presidential election is scheduled. Our hope is that this election will actually take place, that it will be legitimate, and that the Bush gang will not sabotage the democratic will of the people again, as they did in 2000.

Despite Bush and Cheney's present numerous troubles, the Republicans are still favored to succeed in the 2004 Election. They have eliminated their most powerful opponents, gained control of the Congress, modified Congressional Districts in their favor, legislated the adoption of dubious electronic voting systems, compromised the Supreme Court and the Electoral College, have multilateral support from corporate America, and now firmly control the majority of media networks.

Presently, there are daily embarrassments and exposes about the Bush administration's betrayals. These include shocking revelations from former Treasury Secretary Paul O'Neil, former defense advisor Richard C. Clark, and General Wesley Clark. As I am writing this, the Investigational testimonies on 9/11 attacks are being broadcast live on CNN.

But it is still likely that the Bush crime syndicate will manage to steal another four years. And we already know how much damage can be done in such a short period of time.

In the event of this worse-case-scenario, this author believes that life in America will quickly degenerate into a living hell. Should this occur, the book you are holding will be an invaluable guide for resistance and survival in the coming dark ages.

If, on the other hand, the good people of America continue to rise up in unity against the tyrants and hold them accountable for their crimes, then we have a real chance of regaining our lost freedoms. Together we can defeat them, and save our ravaged world.

Vanquishing the ruling elite will be easier to accomplish before November of 2004. After the coming elections, the Elite will no longer need to maintain a facade of legality, justice or restraint. Fascism will once again rear its bloody head, with the single-minded goal of world conquest and total domination.

Today we live in the "United States of Amnesia," a land where nearly half of the residents have seemingly abdicated their right to think for themselves. It is likely that many will continue sleepwalking through this surreal contemporary landscape, until the vivid reality of our shared nightmares shocks them awake.

Anyone who has remained conscious during the past few years will most likely agree: these are frightening and perilous times that we are living in. However, as dark as our present situation seems, rest assured—it will get better. These dark days will pass. Our goodness, determination, and collective vision will assure this.

Evil men now control Earth's greatest nation. They plan on extending this dominance around the globe.

But great spiritual teachers instruct us that the reason that evil manifests in our world, is that it fulfills an important function. When good people become too comfortable and complacent, dark forces seize the opportunity to wreak havoc. This negativity promptly motivates good people back into action. The crimes of the Bush gang and the ruling elite have slapped millions of us awake, and we are now highly motivated.

It is essential that the good people of the Earth wake up, unite in purpose, and rise up in opposition against these ruthless men. It is our obligation to ruin their plans for global feudalism. To do this we must acknowledge that the source of evil is not America, or Israel or England; it is a small group of powerful men within each country that have united in purpose, and who have gained control over these countries. These tyrants have already shown that they are willing to sacrifice countless innocent lives to achieve their objectives. The proof is in the smoking ruins of the World Trade Center, the shattered train stations of Madrid.

In order to defeat this powerful elite, our unity, boldness and courage must grow to exceed their own. We can defeat them despite their superior wealth, might, and resources. Like David we must confront their Goliath, but not with weapons or by fighting fight with fire. The stones we gather to arm our slings are weapons of the spirit, We are the warriors of light, and this is what we were born to do.

In order to be victorious over these tyrants, we must evolve ourselves very quickly. By utilizing the tools offered in this book, we will be able to defeat them without resorting to violent revolution, or by sinking to their base level. In gathering these stones of light we strengthen ourselves. By using these tools of noncooperation, self-reliance, sustainability and through spiritual evolution, we become empowered in ways that the tyrants cannot suppress. These are the ways that will help us defeat the old world's ruling elite, and guide us in building a bright new world orchard. Gathering the Stones is a guidebook for leading us on this journey. It is dedicated to helping make these dreams come true.

Introduction

In this time of tyrants, world conflict, chaos and uncertainty, it is essential for us to know deep in our hearts, that the old ways of aggression, competition, self-absorption and overconsumption no longer serve us. These behaviors now threaten the very continuity of life on Earth, and are rapidly pulling us downward into totalitarianism and planetary annihilation.

If we are to continue as a viable species, mankind must evolve. We must transform ourselves in positive and sustainable ways to accommodate the challenges ahead. It is only by replacing our old destructive habits with beneficial and sustainable ones that we will be able to defeat the tyrants, and survive the coming storms of chaos.

Gathering the Stones illustrates a voyage back to rational and sustainable living. It offers a toolkit of concepts, skills and principals that are essential for these challenging times. By applying these methods we can protect ourselves, while disempowering the ruling elite. GTS will helps us to safely navigate these turbulent waters, and help to plot a course back home.

By using these tools in our daily lives, our bodies, minds and spirits will return to health, balance and integration. We will no longer need to plunder and exploit each other, or the earth's resources in order to survive. We can weave ourselves back into the majestic tapestry of life on Earth. The continued existence of our planet's vast web of life depends upon how successfully we learn and apply simplicity, sagacity and sustainability into our daily lives.

As we continue on this journey, we do so with wonder and amazement. By following this path we will transform ourselves into beings able to create an enlightened world society. At first, the signposts are indistinct, but we will begin to find our way. Moving forward, the darkness is banished by the light.

But first we need to open our eyes, and see things as they really are. Although we are all born with this natural ability, we quickly lose this skill as we grow up. Relearning it is not as easy as it sounds. To accomplish this, we must unlearn much of what we “know.” Then we can begin perceiving reality with the wide open amazement of children. This is the essence of sagacity, or enlightened presence. This is known as “being here now.” As we relearn these skills, these signs will become clear and help to lead us safely home.

A good way for readers to begin this process is to consider the wisdom contained in a classic children’s tale. Hansel and Gretel, by the Brothers Grimm. The story is an excellent parable for our times, and contains many parallels that we can relate to.

In the classic fairy tale Hansel and Gretel, the impoverished parents of two small children ponder a dreadful decision. Faced with a “great dearth” in the land, they debate doing the unthinkable; abandoning their offspring in the wilderness rather than face scarcity and starvation themselves. These are definitely highly dysfunctional parents, who are only concerned with their own needs and survival.

Late at night the children overhear them deciding their fate. Instead of being paralyzed by fear, Hansel forms a plan. Slipping quietly outdoors, he gathers a quantity of small white stones, filling his pockets then. Returning to the cottage, he reassures his frightened sister that all will be well, and they fall fast asleep.

In the morning the father leads the children far into the deep forest, and abandons them to their fate, to be “torn to pieces by the wild beasts.” What the woodcutter has failed to notice is that Hansel has secretly left a trail of the pebbles along their path. Later, by following them through the darkness, the children are able to retrace the path of white stones, and safely find their way back home.

Although this is not the end of their trials and tribulations within this “Grimm” tale, these two clever children are able to preserve themselves through presence, foresight, clarity, and by utilizing available resources to prepare for the impending dangers. They eventually save themselves, defeat the evil witch, become enriched, and live happily ever after. The two survive and profit instead of being victimized by the fearful, and self-absorbed adults.

This tale contains priceless metaphors, which if extended into our times, suggest solutions to the dilemmas that now confront us.

Like Hansel and Gretel we are now facing many immediate dangers: a crumbling economy; the scarcity of jobs and resources; impending world war; and dysfunctional leaders only concerned about themselves. Like Hansel and Gretel's parents, these authority figures stand ready to abandoning us to our fates.

Although we are constantly assured by our patriarchs, and their media monopoly that all is well, the support systems that we rely upon are being removed one-by-one: our social security, retirement savings and investments have been plundered; the costs of our food, water and shelter are rising beyond our means; insurance, drugs and medical care are soaring out of reach; public education is dismal; our justice system has failed; governmental safety nets have been shredded; basic constitutional rights have been revoked; and we have lost the trust and respect of the entire world. We are being betrayed, and abandoned by those we trusted to run our world.

Like Hansel, those of us wise enough to have foreseen the coming hard times, have been filling our pockets with stones. Each pebble we pick up represents a tool or method of healing, self reliance, independence, defense, or sustainability. Every one represents a guidepost that can help lead us out of the dark woods.

Gathering the Stones offers methods of living that are ethical, sustainable, and ecologic. They honor the earth, encourage the spirit, foster cooperation, and help us support one another. These are gems of wisdom that encourage goodness and oppose evil. By applying these jewels, the ruling elite are disempowered, while we gain in strength. These metaphoric pebbles clearly mark a path out of the darkness.

By picking up the stones of presence, ethics, spirit, preparedness, self reliance and sustainability, we become like Hansel. He is confident when he reassures his younger sibling "Be comforted, dear little sister, and sleep in peace, for God will not forsake us."

These stones are seeds of self-empowerment. By carefully sewing and tending these seeds we can defeat the tyrants, save our world, and cultivating a bountiful New World Orchard.

The following chapters present the tools and techniques for assisting us in adapting to these difficult times. The methods conveyed are not theoretical - they are tried and true. By gathering the stones we prepare ourselves for the long journey home, just like Hansel and Gretel.

The road lies before us, stretching upwards into the light. Let us begin the journey by gathering the stones of wisdom, one-by-one.

A Rude Awakening

"All you have to do is look at what's happening in the nation's capitol to see evidence of a police state. We see barricades, metal detectors, police, soldiers, and bomb-sniffing dogs everywhere. ID badges are required for everyone. Vehicles are checked at airports and throughout the city. Innocent people have been completely disarmed; only the police and criminals have guns. Worse yet, surveillance cameras in Washington are everywhere."

Congressman Ron Paul,
Financial Privacy Report, May 2002

The antidote to denial

Are you concerned about recent infringements upon your constitutional rights? Does invasion of privacy, increased surveillance, the loss of free speech, and the trashing of the Bill of Rights alarm you? Are you worried that your ancestry, chosen life-style, religious beliefs or political affiliations put you at increased risk from a government run amok? Are you afraid to speak out or protest due to fear of reprisals? Have you noticed how many Americans appear mesmerized by the NeoCon propaganda? Does the suspicion that your beloved country is becoming a totalitarian police state fill you with despair? If you say 'yes' to any of these questions, then you are becoming aware of the dangers, and harsh realities of living in the dawning New World Order.

The New World Order (NWO) was conceived of by a small, but vastly powerful group of men. It is dedicated to achieving global domination by any means possible: deception, blackmail, murder, terrorism, embargo, mass starvation, war, propaganda, mind control, genocide, and even the use weapons of mass destruction.

"We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order."

-- David Rockefeller

The NWO membership includes the leaders of many secret societies, heads of state, directors of multinational corporations, international bankers, military leaders, supreme court judges, politicians, police, religious leaders, and many more.

The results of their machinations have been quite successful: fraudulent elections, cultivation of rabid nationalism, focused xenophobia, control of mass media and communications, dissemination of propaganda, suppression of dissent, protection of corporate interests, stratification of class structures, dissolution of human rights, expansion of prison industries, control of air transportation, erosion of civil liberties, loss of environmental safeguards, pillaging of public resources, legislation without representation, and invasions of foreign nations without cause or due process. The list is nearly endless.

The goal of Gathering the Stones is not to persuade readers about the existence of this sinister and dangerous elite bent upon global dominance. Those who have stayed awake and aware during the past several years—who still have the capacity to think for themselves—are already painfully aware of this frightening reality.

Gathering the Stones (GTS) is written for those who already see the treacherous path that we are traveling, and who need a map and compass to help guide them. The book aims at providing readers with the knowledge, and the tools necessary to bring about better alternatives. Our goal is to dimempower the New World Order, circumvent their dark plans for global conquest, and help to create a stable, spiritually conscious, self-reliant and sustainable way of life upon the Earth.

GTS does not advocate violent revolt. On the contrary; this book encourages a peaceful revolution, one focusing on inner transformation. By accelerating this inner evolution, the outer world will also become transformed. As Mahatma Ghandi was fond of saying: “You must be the change you wish to see in the world.”

How can this be possible, we ask? How can the tyrants now in power be defeated without violent revolution and loss of life? The solutions are not simple, or easily accomplished. But we can begin by withholding support, and stop giving them our power. Then we channel and focus these recovered essential energies into positive and constructive ways. In addition GTS advocates protest, reeducation, noncooperation, boycotting, and civil disobedience whenever possible.

In order to accomplish this redirection of our vital energies, we need to learn how to think for ourselves again, to cultivate methods of self reliance and sustainability, and then continue transforming ourselves into the brilliant beings we are destined to become.

Today, our survival is primarily dependent upon the resources produced by the elite. They supply us with many of the essentials we need to survive: food, water, fuel, power, clothing, medicine, electronics, minerals, metals, and building materials for our homes. This enriches them while making us dependant and vulnerable.

A good example of this is Walmart Corp., which contributed $630,000 to Bush’s 2000 election campaign. This company has thrived while relying on child and prison labor in China. It routinely destroys both it's competitors, and it's suppliers. In addition, Walmart fills the coffers of China's military machine, which receives 20% of the profits of products manufactured there. We have fueled this Goliath with U.S. consumer dollars. Many people boycott Walmart for these reasons.

Tyrants encourage dependency and discourage self-reliance. They exploit people and planetary resources alike, and have total disregard for the well-being of this planet. Just look around at the results.

The elite's numbers are few compared to our vast billions. They are also greatly dependent upon our energy, support and compliance in order to accomplish their dark plans. Without our participation, their empire and quest for global domination will falter, and eventually fail.

History shows that noncooperation is an effective strategy for defeating tyrants. Mahatma Ghandi, Martin Luther King, and Corry Aquino have proven this.

In order for us to depose the ruling elite we must stop relying upon them for our daily needs, and begin supplying these necessities for ourselves. This is the essence of self reliance and sustainability. These concepts are a primary source of power and insure our freedoms, helping to build the foundations for a peaceful revolution. Self reliance removes many of the controls and constraints that dependency upon the Elite imposes upon us.

The redirection of our essential energies will contribute to the dissolution of the Elite's NWO. We will no longer support their multi-national war machine, or provide the energy that fuels their quest for global conquest.

This book is a guidebook written to help us cope with these challenging times. It offers methods for living safely and sustainably, separate from the emerging totalitarian police state. It also offers tried-and-true methods for opposing totalitarianism using nonviolent means.

We cannot wait for others to come and save us, we must do this for ourselves. This will be accomplished by transforming ourselves from the inside-out. As Mahatma Ghandi often said; "You must be the change you wish to see in the world."

We have already begun the journey that will lead us out of bondage and darkness. Let us find the courage to walk this brilliant path together.

What happened?

It seems like only yesterday that “We The People” were riding high, living under blue skies in liberty, prosperity and security. Americans held the hopes, dreams and aspirations of the entire world. Then, in the few short years, our dreamlike way of life began to disintegrate.

Today, America’s cherished freedoms, rights, and institutions lay scattered in ruins. Our cherished birthrights have been stolen; elected representatives have betrayed us; government officials purposely lie and mislead us; once-trusted journalists have been intimidated into silence. “We the people” have been sold down-river like cattle.

The past several years have shown us how quickly an iron-fisted dictatorship can be imposed upon a frightened and docile population. Although once considered to be a paranoid delusion, this unlikely possibility has become a vivid reality.

The primary reason given for stripping us of our freedoms, rights and protections is to protect of from the terrorists who attacked us on September 11, 2001. Many Americans have bought this load of bull, and support Bush & Co. without question. In truth, this “terrorist” attack was an inside job, accomplished with the assistance and support of highly placed individuals within the U.S Government, Defense Department, NORAD, FBI, and of course the White House. Mountains of evidence have been uncovered that validate these allegations. As the findings of the Independent Investigation of 9/11 are revealed, this will become common knowledge.

“Terrorism is the best political weapon, for nothing drives people harder than a fear of sudden death.”

-- Adolf Hitler

America is now ruled by an un-elected, authoritarian president, a man who has no difficulty sacrificing countless innocent civilian lives to get what he wants. He is supported by many others like himself, and is backed by the enormous power and resources of the international ruling elite.

To oppose this shadowy elite is hazardous. Many who have done so have been ruined economically, falsely imprisoned, or have simply vanished. To openly criticize King George II is also dangerous. As he is fond of saying: “If you are not with us, you are against us.” A long trail of murdered journalists, microbiologists, U.S., Afghani and Iraqi citizens, and two Congressmen lie dead by their hands.

But there are still American heroes coming forward. Former Treasury Secretary Paul O’Neill, and former National Security Advisor Richard Clark have exposed Bush’s lies and deceits for the world to see. Many others are beginning to come forward.

Of course, these are not the “facts” as usually presented by the mainstream media cartels. Their artificial reality bears little resemblance to the truth. We are being force-fed a continual barrage of media propaganda, half-truths, and sophisticated psyops (psychological operations), This hogwash manipulates our collective reality 24/7/365. The media monopoly has become so adept at this, that most of us are ensnared in their synthetic spider’s web, and don’t realize the truth.

This present synthetic reality is analogous to the one imposed upon humanity in the hit movie The Matrix. In the film, a fabricated version of reality dominates the consciousness of humanity. This allows the enemies of mankind to parasitically harvest the energy and life-force from the unsuspecting humans, which fuels their vast empire.

In an early scene in The Matrix Neo’s mentor Morpheus defines this synthetic reality: “The Matrix; it is a world that has been pulled over your eyes to blind you from the truth... a prison that you cannot smell, nor taste, or touch—a prison for your mind.”

Americans now inhabit a sophisticated mental prison similar to the matrix. Most are completely deceived by the lies and deceits of the tyrants and technocrats, and are easily manipulated in this way. This false reality is a skillful blend of facts, lies, propaganda, and psychological manipulation. The content is orchestrated by a politically unified media monopoly.

The media networks who produce this virtual reality are controlled by just a few men, all of whom support identical globalist agendas.

They are: Gerald Levin, CEO of AOL/Time Warner, Michael Eisner, CEO of the Walt Disney Company, Ted Turner of Turner Broadcasting System, Edgar Bronfman, Jr. and Sr., father and son, who are Chairman and CEO of Universal Studios, Sumner Redstone, CEO of Viacom, Inc, Dennis Dammerman, Vice Chairman of General Electric, Peter Chernin, President of Co-COO of News Corporation Limited, And of course the infamous Rupert Murdoch. These men control ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, FOX, MTV, Universal Studios, and MCA Records. All of their headquarters are located in Times Square, N.Y.C., and all are dedicated supporters of the Zionist/neoconservative policies of the Illuminati.

These media monopolists dictate the content of radio, press, TV, cable and music industries in America, and over 50% worldwide. Media warlords disseminate the ruling elite agendas, and facilitated the spreading of misinformation, disinformation, and propaganda to the masses.

The ruling elite are masters of “divide and conquer.” strategy Their methods are polarizing in order to divide us as a people, and to turn us against each other. More than half of the people in America presently believe their fabrications wholeheartedly, and many are willing to fight to defend the lies.

Mainstream media networks are in essence, terrorists, having kept us terrorized and in fear since September 11. The lies they spread are mental WMDs: weapons of mass deception. This is just one variety of the mind control weaponry in their arsenal.

The effectiveness and pervasiveness of mind-control technology should not be underestimated. This is an uncomfortable truth. We must consider the fact that most of us are being mentally manipulated without our knowledge.

The ruling elite have developed sophisticated methods for influencing the human mind, and directly manipulating our perceptions, beliefs, and actions. They have become adept at this.

Mind control can be accomplished by a variety of means: media misinformation and disinformation, behavior modification techniques, hypnosis, torture, psychoactive drugs, and even electromagnetic methods which can be applied to unwitting subjects remotely. These control techniques fall roughly into two categories: trauma based, and external control. Steve Hassan (Freedom of Mind Press) further categorizes these into four subcategories: behavior control, information control, thought control, and emotional control.

Tyrants has labored for centuries to find methods for achieving complete control over their subjects. The use of repression, torture, starvation, drugs, and hypnosis provided early successes. Modern discoveries built upon these rudimentary methods, and have provided the ruling elite with highly effective means of manipulating the thoughts, beliefs, and actions of the masses.

Early behaviorist researchers Ivan Pavlov, and John B. Watson revolutionized the fields of Psychology by discovered ways of “conditioning,” or modifying behavior. Practical applications of their early research were applied by neo-behaviorists Edward C. Tolman, Clark L. Hull, and B. F. Skinner. Their findings and methods of these pioneers were eventually integrated into early mind-control research programs worldwide.

By the 1930’s Professor L.L. Vasiliev, and other Russian researchers, had conducted research into hypnotism combined with radio waves (Radio-Hypnotic Intracerebral Control) they were quite successful. Later, both Russians and North Koreans used high-intensity magnetic field devices to assist in interrogations during 1950’s and 1960’s.

Extensive mind control research was conducted on prisoners by Nazi German scientists at Dachau Concentration Camp. One of the goals was to be able to create soldiers that could be controlled like robots. Many died from these experiments. The drug D-IX was one of their successes. Other mind-altering drugs were employed by Nazis, Japanese, and U.S. Methamphetamine was one of these.

The element fluorine was discovered to be highly effective in pacifying prisoners, and also making them susceptible to the will of authority figures. This substance was used in Nazi concentration camps, and in Russian Gulags. Today fluorene is now widely added to drinking water and toothpaste, despite the fact that it has very few health benefits.

Americans were also experimenting with these emerging technologies during WWII. The O.S.S. used psychoactive drugs to extract information from German U-boat personnel, practices in direct conflict with the Geneva Accords. A few decades later, new and powerful psychoactive drugs such as L.S.D., mescaline, BZ and SNA (quinuclidinyl benzilate), and Tetradoxin were tested on many unsuspecting U.S civilians and military personnel.

After the war, three dozen former Nazi scientist were recruited into “Operation Paperclip” and relocated to the United States, under direct orders of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

When the O.S.S. was replaced by the C.I.A., mind-control research and experimentation continued under the direction of Richard Helms - director of the CIA, and father of the M.K.-Ultra project. A number of the Operation Paperclip German scientists were employed in this program.

The successes achieved by these early government-sponsored mind-control research studies proved promising enough to expand into a large number of behavior modification programs under the Department of Defense, the Department of Labor, the National Science Foundation, the National Institute of Mental Health, and the Veterans' Administration. All of these agencies worked under the umbrella of the CIA-sponsored MK-ULTRA program. In addition, many academic institutions received sizable grants to participate in research and testing of mind-control technologies. A primary goal of MK-ULTRA was the creation of programmed assassins.

It was discovered that the human mind could be stressed to the breaking point using torture, drugs and electric shocks. The mental fragments could then be compartmentalized (like the partitioning of a computer hard-drive), then reprogrammed using hypnotic techniques, and neuro-linguistic programming. These victims could then be trained as highly-functioning mind-controlled slaves, often without their own conscious knowledge.

In 1977 John Marks, an investigative journalist, brought a lawsuit against the CIA’s MK-ULTRA programs under the Freedom of Information Act. Subsequent Senate hearings exposed twenty years of clandestine research in behavior modification and experimentation on U.S. citizens. But this did not stop the C.I.A.’s quest for methods of total control of the human mind. The benefits to the ruling elite outweighed the any risks of disclosure.

Dramatic advances in electromagnetic control of human behavior motivated researchers to refocus their energies in these promising areas. Dr. Jose Delgado, Dr. W. Ross Adey, and Dr. Wilder Penfield were pioneers in this emerging field.

"Man does not have the right to develop his own mind. This kind of liberal orientation has great appeal. We must electrically control the brain. Some day armies and generals will be controlled by electric stimulation of the brain." - Dr. Jose Delgado / 1974 Congressional Record, No. 262E, Vol. 118.

In the early 1960's the Soviets began beaming microwaves into the American Embassy in Moscow to disrupt the mental functioning of the embassy staff. When this was discovered, a research program named Operation Pandora was begun. When monkeys were subjected to similar microwaves they developed biological and neural damage. After this the development of Microwave weaponry became a priority in the U.S.

In 1974, Dr. Joseph C. Sharp of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, produced microwave transmissions that transmitted human voices directly into the minds of subjects (V2S - Voice to Skull or synthetic telepathy). This was even successful with deaf participants.

Dramatic discoveries have been made in ELF (Extremely Low Frequency) research since the 1970's. Dr. W. Ross Adey, and Dr. Elizabeth Rauscher were prominent in this research. ELF waves are undetectable. ELF projectors do not create discernible heat, ionization or other effects to alert unwitting victims. The human brain operates within the 100 hertz frequency range, and many devices and mind control systems, including HAARP, have been developed to function in the same frequency.

Readers should keep in mind that most of the research and experimentation into mind-control technologies has been conducted illegally. These covert programs have ignored Nuremberg Codes against human experimentation, and also disobeyed the National Research Act, sponsored by Senator Kennedy for the Protection of Human Subjects of Biomedical and Behavioral Research.

Because of these ongoing crimes against our shared "mental commons," individual safeguards and precautions have become a necessity. Mental self-defense should be learned and practiced. The following suggestions outline some of the more effective methods.

First and foremost, avoid associating with anyone currently working in behavioral modification research, mind-control research, or anyone utilizing these technologies. This includes cults such as: Scientology, EST, or religious groups that use these techniques: Jehova Witnesses, Mormons, Jesuits, etc. Also avoid the “survivors” of MK-ULTRA mind control programs who are capitalizing upon their experiences. The most prominent are actually doing damage control for the C.I.A. They frequent the talk show and book tour circuits, spreading disinformation and discrediting actual victims. This strategy became necessary when the programming of older trauma-based mind control victims began breaking down. When the victims began healing and talking about their experiences, the elite sent out PR Trojan horses (current MK slaves and their handlers) to clean up.

Second, monitor and regulate mental input from radio, TV, print media, internet, etc. (garbage in—garbage out). When we watch networks such as FOX or CNN, we are polluting our mind streams with garbage and propaganda. Select your media input carefully. For news, go to alternative sources: print media, select cable channels, and progressive websites.

Third, avoid using cell phones, and also avoid living or working near microwave transmission towers. These are reportedly capable of being used for mind-control transmissions, not to mention the documented health hazards. Many cell tower repeaters are disguised as thick flagpoles.

Finally, we must train our minds to be mentally strong, resilient, and resistant to psychological manipulation. Later chapters will address these issues in detail.

Americans now live in a constant state of uncertainty. Most wander through their daily lives in a somnambulistic state, drugged, dazed and bewildered by mainstream media’s force-fed, fear-inducing factoids. All made possible by the Elite’s powerful propaganda machine, one that would have made Nazis green with envy.

An excellent example of media manipulations, and their complicity in crimes and cover-ups was this blackballed news item: On November 27, 2003, Ellen Mariani, a 911 Victim’s Wife, and an outspoken advocate of uncovering the truth behind 9/11, filed a complaint and lawsuit under the RICO Act (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act) in Federal Court against President Bush and Cabinet Members. Mrs. Mariani has been instrumental in the Congressional investigation of 9/11 and was the primary motivating force behind the independent investigation presently under way. She is being represented by Philip J. Berg, a former Attorney General of Pennsylvania.

The lawsuit has accused Bush and his corrupt cabinet of: foreknowledge of 9/11, of conspiracy; of allowing the attacks to occur intentionally; of capitalizing upon the disaster to pursue an invasion of oil-rich Iraq, and then of concealing the evidence in a massive cover-up. She has submitted forty pages of bulletproof and incriminating abstracts, all are damning evidence against the plaintiffs.

A press conference was organized for November 26, in front of Independence Hall in Philadelphia. Over 3000 press releases were delivered to newspapers, magazines, television and cable networks. Only FOX attended, but never even aired a single word about the press conference. They simply ignored the most explosive expose of the year! This lawsuit has disappeared, as if it was dropped down an Orwellian ‘memory hole.’ Fred Powledge, of the ACLU stated “The decision ‘not to do the story’ appears to be multiplying all over the nation.”

We the people of the United States need to be informed about incidents such as these in order to make sound judgements based upon the facts. But we are being denied access to the truth intentionally and systematically.

Our minds spin at the implications of such betrayals, and we cry out for answers to these questions: How could our reality be so effectively hijacked? How can this happen without our knowledge or consent? When did this downward spiral actually begin? Why did our freedoms, economics, and political systems disintegrate so rapidly? What can be done to stop it?

The answers to these questions are complex, and the truth is far stranger than fiction. In 1999 the “Elite”, a small group of the world’s most powerful men, gave the Bush crime syndicate, Halliburton Corp., and the Carlyle Group, permission to initiate a well planned hostile takeover of the U.S. Electoral system. They were well prepared in advance, and their plan succeeded brilliantly. But this coup d’etat was not their final goal—it was only the beginning. Their ultimate aim is nothing less than the creation of a military controlled, technologically monitored, global totalitarian police state.

zation known as the Illuminati, also known as The Order, and by many other names. This elite is multigenerational, are all descendants of royal bloodlines, and worship Lucifer as their primary deity. Many of America's leaders and captains of industry belong to the Illuminati. The Illuminati are affiliated with many other secret societies and organized crime families.

These powerful men manipulate world affairs from behind the curtains, much like the Wizard in the Wizard of OZ. Always remaining hidden, their plans are carried out by proxy through individuals, organizations, and affiliated world leaders.

Their planned global empire, known as the New World Order, already dominates many governmental, educational, legal, manufacturing, medical, pharmaceutical, and prison systems. The Elite presently control the American, British, Israeli, and Australian governments, police, and armed forces. In the U.S. the Elite dominate the Congress, the Supreme Court, and many internal agencies such as the NSA, FBI, CIA, DEA, and FEMA. Homeland Security is their latest powerful creation.

The Illuminati hold positions of leadership in many police, military and paramilitary forces. In addition, they own and control the world's largest financial institutions, media conglomerates, agribiz corporations, energy and oil cartels. They are also in control of many NGOs (Non-Governmental Organizations). The elite possess the lions share of all global political power, and available planetary wealth (estimated at more that 50%).

To find new members, the Illuminati work within academic institutions and intelligence agencies. A well known example is Yale's Skull and Bones Club, an American branch of the Bavarian Illuminati. This shadowy organization selects thirteen candidates per year for acceptance. The initiates become "Bonesmen." Both George W. Bush and John Kerry are lifelong members. Recruits are also gleaned from both military and domestic intelligence agencies.

Bonesmen stage initiations where prospective members participate in illegal and perverse activities, and these ceremonies are filmed in order to blackmail them later. The initiator is dressed in a devil costume. If you don't participate in these sordid initiations, you won't gain the benefits of membership. Skull and Bones initiations have been witnessed and filmed by investigative reporters. In one of the initiations, same-sex candidates list their sexual histories, then perform sex acts on each other while in a coffin.

The Illuminati are able to control their members by many means. First and foremost they use their great wealth to recruit, and manipulate their members. Second, they employ sophisticated mind control conditioning and technology to assure compliance. Third, they are masters of blackmail, and have “the goods” on all of their members, primarily the documentation of acts of pedophilia, which is a Satanic sacrament. Third, they use threats of torture and ritual murder to terrify their members, tracking down and killing anyone who tries to escape their clutches.

The Illuminati frequently use blackmail to elicit compliance. When former President George H. Bush left his position as Director of the CIA, he reportedly took thousands of intelligence dossiers on key politicians and industrialists with him. These dossiers have been used repeatedly since then to insure cooperation, loyalty and silence. Sensitive information on the financial dealings and sexual habits of certain Supreme Court Judges supposedly facilitated the appointment of Bush’s son as President of the United States.

The existence of the Illuminati is a historic fact, but their present day existence, organization and activities are topics of intense debate. Very few have penetrated into the organization, or have investigated the inner workings of this secret brotherhood. Of these most have vanished, been murdered or have been intimidated into silence. This continues to this day.

Scholars who have studied the machinations of the Illuminati’s influence on global affairs insist that their existence and power is beyond refute. Those who are less informed dismiss the Illuminati as fiction, as just another conspiracy theory. In reality, the Illuminati are the source of many of the world’s conspiracy theories.

So we must ask hard some questions. Is there evidence that the Illuminati truly exist, and if so, are they powerful enough to potentially conquer the world? If so, is their ultimate goal the transformation of Earth into a global totalitarian state?

In this author’s opinion, the answer to both questions is an emphatic YES! If readers must verify these truths before being able to proceed with this book, then start by investigating the on-line writings and books of Fritz Springmeier. Another excellent resource is Svali, a former senior high-level Illuminati programmer and trainer. Svali is considered by many experts of ritual abuse to be authentic. Her writings detail the inner workings, plans and methods of the Illuminati, based upon her personal upbringing and experiences. These stories are convincing and disturbing. She names places, events and dates. Many are verifiable. Her many writings can be accessed at http://www.mindcontrolforums.com/svali_speaks.htm.

Other Illuminati/CIA mind control survivors include Cathy O'Brien, Susan Ford, and Kathleen A. Sullivan. Kathleen is a former MK-ULTRA victim, and author of Unshackled: A Survivor's Story of Mind Control. She is remarkable woman who has survived unbelievable levels of abuse at the hands of many of today's most influential and corrupt leaders and public figures. Her healing process still continues, and she is devoted to helping other victims on the road to reintegration and wholeness. Her website address is: <http://www.kathleen-sullivan.com>.

For further validation of the pervasive existence of the Illuminati, one can consult with professionals who have worked with survivors of ritual abuse. Several years ago, I spent an evening interviewing such a therapist in a secure setting. At the time she was in hiding from an Illuminati affiliated Satanic group. They had killed her partner, and had made several attempts on her life. This was in retaliation for her work in assisting women to escaped from the cult, and help in their deprogramming and counseling.

This therapist worked in affiliation with county and state law enforcement. At the time of the interview, she stated that there were six to eight full-time detectives investigating ritual murders and Satanic abuse in the Pacific Northwest. Her tales of ritual abuse, human breeders, and the sacrifice of infants still haunt my dreams.

There are few individuals raised in these multigenerational Illuminati families who have escaped. The rare ones who have are very courageous people. Deserters are typically hunted down by trained Illuminati trackers, then ritualistically and brutally murdered as warnings to the others.

But some have escaped and live in hiding. I know such an individual personally, whom I will call Amery. He is a powerful psychic and warrior trained since childhood by the Illuminati. Amery's family are multigenerational Illuminati witches and warlocks highly placed in U.S. military intelligence. When Amery was old enough, he was married to the daughter of another high level Illuminati in military intelligence, to perpetuate the bloodline. He now lives in hiding, and has an almost pathologic fear of having his families genetic material misappropriated.

Having worked with Amery in a professional capacity, and having witnessed his remarkable abilities firsthand, I am convinced that his story is true. Amery's tales mirror the upbringings and experiences of Svali, O'Brien, Sullivan and others. As additional proof, he foretold the attacks of 9/11 weeks in advance, and correctly assigned the blame on the actual perpetrators—not on the Bushite's patsies.

The Illuminati Elite are the primary source of woes that plague us today. They have sponsored world wars, terrorism and genocide to facilitate their goals. They are behind many of the disasters, atrocities and crimes perpetrated against humanity in the past one hundred years.

If you still have lingering doubts that the existence of the Illuminati Elite, or their creation of a global totalitarian state, please review the supplemental resource documents in the resource section of this book, or the materials archived at www.lightwatcher.com/GTS_resources. You should also read The 14 Defining Characteristics Of Fascism by Dr. Lawrence Britt (also included in resource section). America presently embodies all fourteen of these definitive characteristics.

It is the Elite who sponsored and financed the Nazis, Communism, and Apartheid in South Africa. They orchestrated the Oklahoma City Bombing, and the 'terrorist attacks' of September 11. It is they who have pitted the Palestinians against the Jews, and supply the mind controlled suicide bombers throughout the Mideast.

Invisible and anonymous, the Elite are brilliant global puppeteers. Always operating through proxies, they prefer hand puppets who are stupid, authoritarian, and who are susceptible to blackmail. Their agents are chosen when young and carefully groomed for their roles.

The Elite demand our subservience. They view ordinary people as cattle, slaves, consumers, and as expendable cannon fodder. When our usefulness is over, they plan to eliminate most of us.

In America 'We the People' have been downgraded into 'We the Sheep.' and are expected to meekly follow the Illuminati shepherds from the feedlots directly to the slaughterhouses.

Illuminati are Aryan supremacists. Like Hitler, they believe that they are the master race, and that it is their destiny to rule the world and dominate the inferior races. It is also their goal to cull the “dark races” from Earth’s gene pool. Some researchers believe that ethno-specific bioweapons are already being used to accomplish these goals—AIDS being an early attempt to decimate nonwhites. Others suspect that the chemtrail spraying programs underway globally since the late 1990s are an effectively way of delivering biological weapons regionally or globally. There is good evidence that this is already occurring.

We are living in very dark times. Democracy is being revoked. There is no longer representation of the people. The vote has been replaced by Supreme Court appointments and electoral college subterfuge. We have lost most of our freedoms and rights, and are no longer even referred to as citizens—only as “consumers.” Individuals, renegades and free thinkers are no longer tolerated. Demonstrators are isolated, tortured, beaten, photographed and fingerprinted. We are being manipulated and lied to by media cartels, drained by a health system that insures disease, then profits excessively from the “cures.” Our safety nets have been shredded, savings pillaged, retirements delayed. Jobs are being ‘outsourced’ overseas by the millions. And forget about earning overtime wages to dig our way out: Bush just outlawed this with a few strokes of his pen.

All things considered, there is no justifiable reason for supporting the plans, goals, or methods of the ruling Elite. Their insatiable greed and lust for power leaves nothing for ordinary people. If they succeed in their quest for planetary conquest, it will deplete the resources of the planet. All that will remain will be one vast prison planet

But do not lose hope. Despite their great wealth and power, the Elite are not invulnerable. We are already seeing the first cracks appear in the NWO facade. Presently, three state governments, and 236 communities in 37 states have voted to invalidate the Patriot Act within their borders. Recently WTO protestors in Cancun, Mexico joined with labor unions, and third world agriculturalists have succeeded in tossing a major wrench into the WTO’s plans for economic domination. Recently two federal appeals courts ruled against Bush for refusing to recognize the basic due-process rights of “enemy combatants,” a major element of the Patriot Act. In addition, the revelations of Former insiders such as Paul O’Neil, and Richard Clark are awakening many to the dark side of the Bush gang, and convincing even hard-core Bush supporters to reconsider allegiance.

It is inevitable that The Elite's empire will be steadily weakened by protest, betrayal, and inner conflict. Before long, the masses will have awakened to the truth and will join in the revolt. The despot's countless enemies will see their opportunity, seize the moment, and jump into the conflict. The old saying holds true: "Be careful who you step on while climbing the ladder of success, they will be waiting for you on the way back down."

Good often declines into decadence, and darkness grows like a cancer in light's absence. As evil increases, lightworkers are motivated into action to oppose the tyrants. During their reigns the elite may seem invincible, but in the final reckoning they are always vanquished.

The Elite are presently the dominate economic, political, and unified military force on Earth. The masses of humanity are their primary source of power, and their Achilles' heel. It is this vulnerability that we must exploit to the fullest extent.

Fortunate for mankind, there are viable strategies for circumventing the Illuminati's New World Order, and for derailing their insane plans for Earth. A Light In Darkness outlines methods for reducing our dependencies on the Elite, disempowering the New World Order, transforming ourselves from within, and for navigating the dangerous waters we are presently voyaging. To do this will insure our continued evolution and a sustainable future.

How did we get here?

While we were snoozing through the gluttonous 80's and 90's, the corrupt and powerful Illuminati Elite were preparing to stage a coup d'etat of America. Having become adept at corporate hostile takeovers, the Elite began to apply these skills on a far grander scale, by integrating the former United States of America into their global empire. By consolidating their massive international power through bribery, blackmail, intimidation, media manipulation and murder, this evil consortium was able to hijack the 2000 presidential elections, and install a loyal Illuminati pawn as U.S. president.

Once this was accomplished, several other steps had to be taken. First and foremost—the Constitution and Bill of Rights had to be neutered. The Patriot, RAVE, and Intelligence Authorization Acts have successfully gutted our traditional rights, liberties and protections. The TIPS program has been resuscitated within FEMA, creating a civilian network of citizen informants, effectively gutting our rights of assembly and privacy.

Next came the systematic dismantling of the U.S. economy, and the downgrading of it's middle classes into poorly-paid wage slaves. We are now witnessing the wholesale out-sourcing of millions of U.S. jobs to India, China, and elsewhere.

The final steps include the restructuring, or removal of essential social services and support: welfare, food stamps, public education, health care, insurance, etc. As social service workers will attest; society's safety nets have been drastically cut back, or no longer exist. Most of these essential programs and services that the working class poor need to survive are already beyond their reach.

In order to continue their absorption of America, the Elite needed to fabricate a new enemy for the United States, one that would whip the sheeple of America into a blood lust for war. The previous enemies: Russia and China, no longer elicited the necessary knee-jerk reactions the Elite required to pursue their campaign of global conquest. The new enemies they created were Osama Bin Laden, Saddam Hussain, and the entire Muslim culture. Their well planned reaction-formation event detonated on September 11, 2001.

"The process of transformation, even if it brings revolutionary change, is likely to be a long one, absent some catastrophic and catalyzing event - like a new Pearl Harbor" (2000)

- Project for a New American Century

The Illuminati have over nearly one million members presently residing in the United States. They are highly placed in positions of influence and power within police departments, branches of the military, the justice system, Congress and the Senate, intelligence agencies, and within the media cartels. From these strategic positions, they were able to organize, fund, facilitate, and control the public's perceptions of the "terrorist attacks."

President Bush repeatedly ignored warnings from top counter-terrorism adviser Richard Clark, and obstructing terrorist investigations prior to the attacks. He was warned repeatedly, by numerous sources, well in advance of 9/11. Agents of the Israeli MOSSAD contacted the FBI and CIA five times prior to the attacks, warning that hijacked airliners would be used as flying bombs against Washington and N.Y.C. Being fully aware of the looming terrorist threat, the elite carefully cultivated the conditions necessary for 9/11 to occur.

Immediately after September 11 the traitorous Bush, and key members of his administration, fully capitalized upon these tragedies, using our collective state of shock and paralysis to their full advantage. They activated a “Shadow Government” in an underground city outside of Washington, successfully enacted sweeping draconian legislation, and began the wars against Afganistan and Iraq planned long in advance.

To maintain absolute control over at home, the tyrants established the Department of Homeland Security (apparently cloned from Nazi stock). Although originally proposed to protect Americans from terrorism, Homeland Security’s actual purpose is to monitor citizens, regulate public transportation, crush opposition to the current regime, and to maintain iron-fisted control within U.S. borders. It is designed to watch, intimidate, suppress, and herd the “sheep” of America.

To further increase their control over Americans, plans for resettlement and interment of U.S. citizens have been implemented. Numerous processing centers, and interment facilities have already been constructed throughout the country. Many of these are in remote locations, but near major highways, railroads, and airports. The infrastructure for incarcerating and punishing dissenters and “enemies of the state” were established by 1968. Plans code-named Operation Cable Splicer and Operation Garden Plot (FM 19-15), sub programs of the Rex 84 Program. These plans were updated in February, 1976 (FM 19-40) and again in 1986 (FM 19-60).

These plans were revised and updated in 2001. Field Manual 3-19.40 or FM 19-40 is the handbook for Military Police Internment/Resettlement Operations. This manual is available on-line at: <http://www.adtdl.army.mil/cgi-bin/atdl.dll/fm/3-19.40/ch6.htm#par3>

The President is legally empowered to declare a national state of emergency, suspend the Constitution, then order the director of FEMA to take control of the infrastructure and all existing resources within the U.S. He could then order the Army Chief of Staff to use military forces to detain, relocate and inter citizens en masse.

Suggested plans for civilian interment camps and processing centers. Note that personal possessions are confiscated during the process.

The original plan from 1968, Rex 84, called for many military bases to be closed and converted into prisons. Displaced populations would be quickly rounded up and detained in detention centers by FEMA.

The President could then invoke Executive Orders 11000 - 11004, and 12656, to draft all U.S. citizens into work forces under governmental supervision, empower the postmaster to register all men, women, and children, seize all airports and aircraft, and seize all housing to establish forced relocation of citizens.

As difficult as all of this is to believe, massive processing centers and interment camps are have already been constructed throughout the country. These are meant to handle dislocated populations, dissenters, and malcontents.

At last count there were over one hundred and thirty camps built, staffed and ready to process hoards of internees. If the existence of civilian interment camps seems farfetched. These selected excerpts are from the Army Civilian Interment Plan, and its' security protocols:

Internment/Resettlement Facilities - 500 Man Enclosure

Guard towers - Locate guard towers on the perimeter of each facility. Place them immediately outside the wall or, in case of double fencing, where they permit an unobstructed view of the lane between the fences. The space between towers must allow overlapping observation and fields of fire. During adverse weather, it may be necessary to augment security by placing fixed guard posts between towers on the outside of the fence. Ensure that towers are high enough to permit an unobstructed view of the compound and low enough to permit an adequate field of fire. Tower platforms should have retractable ladders and be wide enough to mount crew-served weapons.

Patrol roads - Construct patrol roads for vehicle and foot patrols. They should be adjacent to outside perimeter fences or walls.

Sally ports - A sally port (a series of gates) is required to search vehicles and personnel entering or leaving the main compound. Consider placing a sally port at the back entrance to the facility.

Relocation of civilians to interment camps is a real possibility in our near future. But there are many other nightmares already occurring.

One blatant example happened in May of 2003, when Homeland Security forces were ordered to locate and retrieve 38 Texas State Senators. The Senators had fled to Oklahoma rather than be forced to vote on the redrawing of Texas congressional districts, which eventually succeeded, eliminating eight Democratic electoral votes. Mainstream media ignored this blatant abuse of power for over two days.

While our homeland was under a Terrorist 'Orange Alert,' John Ashcroft ordered the actions against the Democratic Senators. Instead of following its charter to protect U.S. citizens from terrorist attacks, Homeland Security (assisted by Texas State Troopers) intimidated the Senator's wives, children, friends and staff. Agents even lied to family members, telling them that there might have been a plane crash, and the Senators were missing and presumed dead.

Homeland Security is an intelligence gathering, totalitarian police force. It is under the complete control of the NeoCon inner cabal—the same individuals who are suspected of being implicated in the attacks of September 11th. They have no accountability, and observe no due process. Homeland Security operates behind closed doors.

The crimes and atrocities that began on 9/11 just keep multiplying. The Bush gang has castrated Congress, sabotaged the economy, consolidated the media, trashed the Constitution, pillaged stock portfolios and retirements savings, multiplied the National Debt, drained the lifeblood from our health care systems, brainwashed the U.S. population, rolled back environmental safeguards, multiplied military expenditures, clear-cut national forests, invaded and pillaged the riches of Middle East, and are now establishing a totalitarian New World Order, who's goal is planetary domination. The New World Order “master plan” has been put on the fast track.

Who and what are the New World Order? The term “New World Order” first gained world wide attention when used by former President H.W. Bush in a 1990 speech given before a Joint Session of Congress. However, the original plans to institute a global feudalistic state go back much further. Many Researchers believe that the Illuminati, a small number of elite and powerful international ruling families, have been working towards the goal of world domination for hundreds of years. Their aim is to merge all the nations of the Earth into a global totalitarian state. This Elite are reported to have financed Hitler, Stalin, Communism, and many regimes to further their globalist goals.

“Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective - a new world order - can emerge... A hundred generations have searched for this elusive path to peace, while a thousand wars raged across the span of human endeavor. Today that new world is struggling to be born. A world quite different from the one we've known.”

Former President George H. W. Bush - September 11, 1990

This globalist ruling elite are ruthless, brilliant, and well financed. They conduct their operations through proxies throughout the world. The Elite are masters of deception and psychological manipulation. The “surprise” attack on Pearl Harbor, the burning of the German Reichstag, and the recent “terrorist” attacks of 9/11 all reflect the characteristic “reaction/formation” style of Illuminati.

At the core of their philosophy is racial superiority. They believe that it is their aristocratic birthright to rule the “inferior” peoples of the Earth, and to subjugate the under-classes, many of whom they view as expendable cattle. Nonwhite races are held in great contempt. If they pose a direct threat to the Elite, possess valuable resources, or occupy strategic territories, then they become candidates for genocide. Hitler’s campaign to eradicate the Jews, apartheid in South Africa, and China’s extermination of Tibet, are good examples.

The leaders of the Illuminati remain invisible to the prying eyes of the world. Their wishes are carried out by proxy organizations such as: the Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission, Bilderberg Group, and the Carlyle Group, and many others.

There are, however, occasional glimpses of those who conceal themselves behind the curtains. Each year members of the ruling elite gather in the redwood forests of Northern California in the Bohemian Grove. This has been an ongoing event since 1873.

Members of the all male “Bohemian Club” have included former presidents Eisenhower, Nixon, Reagan, Clinton, and both of the George Bushes. Other historic notables are: Dick Cheney, Alexander Hague, Casper Weinberger, Henry Kissinger, George P. Shultz, Stephen Bechtel, William F. Buckley, Jr., Thomas Haywood, Joseph Coors, Edward Teller, and many more.

These members have been photographed arriving and departing from the annual bacchanal. Reportedly, there is a waiting list of over 1500 of the worlds most powerful men desiring admittance into the Bohemian Club of the elite.

Dark tales from the Bohemian Grove have become legendary. Many local residents are employed on-site during the event, and rumors of perverse activities and rituals have circulated among them for years. Video tapes have been filmed covertly, and then smuggled out. These show ritualistic ceremonies and “mock” human sacrifices. The tapes can be viewed free on-line.

If the events that occur in the Grove each year are typical of the recreational tastes of the Illuminati’s New World Order, then their plans for world domination should make us very concerned indeed. These are sadistic, depraved, and evil men.

What are the ultimate goals of the New World Order? The establishment of a global government by any means necessary. A keystone of their plan is to create a series of international crises. These would force diverse nations to unite, and face their common emergencies. Major terrorist attacks, global pandemics, ecologic catastrophe, or a mock invasion from extraterrestrials are included in their possible scenarios. When the more powerful nation states have joined forces to battle a common foe, ones that refuse to participate will be ostracized, targeted and destroyed. As unlikely as this alien invasion scenario is, it was revealed by both Russian KGB intelligence, and by former NASA director Werner Von Braun on his deathbed.

The Third Reich was an early attempt at the Elite's world conquest. Hitler was well acquainted with their plans and goals. The following quotation is his chilling description of their dark vision:

"What will the social order of the future be like? Comrade, I will tell you. There will be a class of overlords, after them the rank and file of the party members in hierarchical order, and then the great mass of anonymous followers, servants and workers in perpetuity, and beneath them again all the conquered foreign races, the modern slaves. And over and above all these will reign a new and exalted nobility of whom I cannot speak. But of all these plans the militant members will know nothing. The new man is living amongst us now! He is here. Isn't that enough for you? I will tell you a secret. I have seen the new man. He is intrepid and cruel. I was afraid of him"

Adolph Hitler / 1939

The "exalted nobility" Hitler refers to are the Illuminati, the same men who sponsored his rise to power. This inner circle of "new men." included notable Americans of the day: New York Governor W. Averell Harriman, E. Roland Harriman, Senator Prescott Bush (George W. Bush's grandfather), and members of the Rockefeller family.

Tyrants make excellent pawns in the Illuminati's game of world conquest. Hitler came to power through the direct assistance of the Illuminati's ruling elite. Decades later, the elite helped the Bush family gain control of America in much the same way.

The Illuminati have been following a detailed plan for global conquest for many years. Details of their plan came to light in the late 1890's when the daughter of a Russian general acquired a copy of a document entitled The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion.

The Priory of Zion is an Illuminati secret society controlled by one of the top thirteen Illuminati families. It's members include blood-lines of the old nobility of Europe, Jesuits, Rosicrucians, 33° Freemasons and representatives from other secret societies.

"The Priory of Zion within the Royal Houses of Europe and various occult circles were attempting to create a movement with their Synarchy ideology, a politicized form of Rosicrucian dogma. Synarchy advocated government by secret society - an elite of enlightened initiates who rule from behind the scenes. This found expression through the writings of Joseph Saint-Yves d'Alveydre, which called for the infiltration of the three key pillars of society... political and social institutions, economic institutions, and religious institutions". The infamous Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion (commonly known by its Old English variant "Zion") are clearly some form of manifesto for the implementation of Synarchy's aims, and are signed by the "representatives of Zion of the 33rd degree."

This origin of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion is uncertain. It's authorship has been attributed to a number of sources: a secret society known as the Priory of Zion; a German antisemite named Hermann Goedsche; a Jewish writer and Philosopher named Asher Ginzberg. It has also been attributed to financier Amschel Rothschild.

To further complicate it's origins, the Prussian secret police re-published the document in 1905 to support their Czar and his anti-Jewish policies. It has been suggested that the Prussians were the ones who inserted Jewish terms and phrases into the original.

To obscure the origin further still, there are strong similarities between the Protocols and a 1864 work written by non-Jewish French satirist Maurice Joly entitled "Dialogues in Hell Between Machiavelli and Montesquieu." The Protocols are considered to be antisemite propaganda by many scholars, and by most Jews. This is due to the strong antisemitic themes.

Hitler later used the Protocols as a proof of a global conspiracy of Jewish bankers in Mein Kampf, and to justify the extermination of the Jews. Hitler was most likely aware of the true identity of the authors.

The document can be described as a long-term master plan for the conquest and transformation of the world into a global police state. Upon reading this controversial book, it is easy to see why so many believe this to be the authentic Illuminati blueprint for global conquest and empire. They reason that the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion has accurately predicted trends and specific events, in sequential order, for over one hundred years. It is a undeniably a brilliant work, and is prophetically accurate. Nobel Prize winner Alexander Solzhenitsyn considered the book to be a work of genius.

Copies of the Protocols are widely available on-line. Many versions are prefaced with commentaries, and in-depth backgrounds of the document. After reading it, you will agree that many of the objectives and goals written prior to 1900 have already been accomplished. Regardless of the original source of the work, it does imply that our world is well on our way to global totalitarianism.

It is also interesting to note that many of the methods proposed by the authors of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion to achieve their goals are identical to those promoted by today's neoconservatives. These strategies were widely taught by the late Professor Leo Straus, known as the the godfather of Neoconservatism. Strause's former students include: Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Wolfowitz; director of the Office of Special Plans (OSP) Abram Shulsky; Council on Foreign Relations member Irving Kristol; Undersecretary of Defense for Intelligence Dr. Steven A. Cambone; Defense Policy Board chairman Richard Perle (the architect behind the Project for the New American Century); Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas; Supreme Court nominee Robert Bork; Assistant Secretary of State Alan Keyes; Under-Secretary of Defense for Intelligence under Rumsfeld Stephen Cambone; drug tsar John Walters; former Secretary of Education William Bennett; former New York Post editorials editor John Podhoretz, and many other highly influential individuals. These prominent neoconservatives dictate policy within the Bush administration. It is fairly certain that all are members of the illuminati elite.

The Bush family has belonged to the ruling elite for generation, and fully supports the illuminati quest for world domination. Senator Prescott Bush, grandfather to our un-elected president, was a know

Nazi ally. While a bank official of New York's Union Banking Corporation, he facilitated large money transfers from American businessmen to the German Nazi party, which supplied Hitler's forces with cash, fuel and weapons. In October of 1942, Prescott Bush was prosecuted by the U.S. government, under the Trading With the Enemy Act. Bush, and charged with “Running Nazi front groups in the United States.” Prescott Bush personally profited over five million dollars in from slave labor at Auschwitz.

Karl Rove, George Bush's Illuminati handler and chief advisor is the grandson of Karl Heinz Roverer, the gauleiter of Mecklenburg, who was also a partner and senior engineer of Roverer Sud-Deutsche Ingenieurbüro AG. They built and managed Birchenau, the concentration camp in Nazi Germany.

There are many others with concealed Nazi roots sheltered within the Bush Gang, the Carlyle group, and it's many affiliated secret societies. Henry Kissinger is one of the most prominent.

To place the actions of the Bush Gang in proper perspective, one must remember that the ultimate goal of the Elite is not only the conquest of America, but the entire Earth. The U.S. must be defeated first, as Americans represent a serious threat to the Illuminati's long term plans. When the U.S. is subjugated, other nations will fall like rows of dominos, being quickly assimilated into the New World Order.

The Bush gang—supported by an international ruling Elite, Zionists, Neoconservatives, and 85 million American fundamentalist Christians—have brought this fascist Frankenstein monster to life. But it took massive the financial backing, political leverage, the participation of the embedded Illuminati fifth columns to accomplish it.

After reading this outline, and becoming aware of the enormous power, influence, and long-term plans of the Illuminati ruling elite, one may be justifiably overwhelmed. Hold fast readers! Regardless of how dismal the big picture looks at this point, we have every reason to remain optimistic. These reasons for this confidence will be addressed in-depth in later chapters.

At this point, a question that many readers may be asking is this: How can ordinary people, such as ourselves topple a regime as powerful and pervasive as the Illuminati's ruling elite?

In order to successfully oppose the elite, survive the coming storms of change, and keep our souls intact, it is imperative that we apply the transformative methods outlined in this book. By learning and using these tools, we will defeat the elite and preserve ourselves during the hard times ahead. In addition, we must have a working sustainable plan for rebuilding our world after the tyrants are gone.

But who will stand up to these evil tyrants? Who will gather the stones, and bravely face the giant Goliath with a simple shepherd's sling?

We will! Those of us with vision and courage are becoming warriors of light. Like young David we will stand together and defeat the elite despite overwhelming odds. We will stop the rapid descent into darkness, we will replace the elite's vile New World Order by planting a new world orchard. To fail in this quest is not an option.

"Throughout history, it has been the inaction of those who could have acted; the indifference of those who should have known better; the silence of the voice of justice when it mattered most; that has made it possible for evil to triumph."

Haile Selassie

Winds of change are in the air, and there are many indications that the American "sleeping giant" is awakening. In recent months, previously silent newspapers and magazines such as the Washington Post, the New York Times, and even the U.S. News and World Report have begun featuring articles formerly prohibited by the Bushites: opposition to the Patriot Act, government secrecy and back room dealings, the 9/11 cover-up, and lies about WMDs in Iraq. This signals a major change within the media.

Opposition to the Patriot Act is sweeping the country. Three state governments, and nearly three hundred cities and towns have united in their opposition to this horrendous legislation. My home town of Friday Harbor, WA recently joined this growing list. The Patriot Act will be an important factor in the upcoming presidential elections.

In late July of 2003, the House of Representatives voted to stop funding the Patriot Act's "sneak and peek" provision. This provision allowed police or government agents to secretly search homes and confiscate property without warrants. This violates the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution against unreasonable search and seizures. Half of Bush's own House Republicans voted to stop funding this provision. In addition, two federal appeals courts ruled against Bush for refusing to recognize basic due-process rights of "enemy combatants," a major element of the Patriot Act.

There has also been growing descent in the NeoCon's own ranks. Former insiders are abandoning the sinking ship. Even Republicans in the Senate and house are opposing the 2004 Budget, the Health Care Act, etc.

These heroic deeds show that a revolution is finally underway against the ruling Elite. But many Americans will still refuse to acknowledge the Bush Gang's crimes, and this is laying the groundwork for civil war. Despite the countless lies, crimes, and despicable actions that have been exposed, many will still condone these acts as necessary. We stand at the beginning of a long and difficult struggle.

As more U.S. soldiers are slaughtered in Iraq, the pro-bush zombies will continue keeping their eyes and ears sealed to the truth. They will continue supporting sociopathic leaders, the Patriot Act, the gutting of the Constitution, and preemptive military actions against "terrorist nations." These American automatons are living proof of the effectiveness of modern propaganda, brainwashing, and the power of media manipulation.

The media monopoly promotes neoconservative policy with endless conflict, disinformation, and bald-faced lies. Yet the brainwashed masses gobble it up. They have been indoctrinated by the most sophisticated propaganda machine ever created, and are no longer able to think for themselves.

The Elite and their sophisticated propaganda machine have immunized countless millions from accessing the truth. The tyrants and technocrats of the New World Order have gained American majority support through fear, hatred, prejudice, subterfuge, intimidation and lies. This has enhanced their already powerful influence, and greatly furthered their goals.

Capitalizing upon the tragedies of 9/11, we the “sheeple” have been manipulated into supporting a series of immoral wars of imperial conquest. These crimes against humanity have enraged our enemies, and alienated most of our former allies. Afghanistan and Iraq are just the beginning. Iran is next, with Syria waiting in the wings.

We “citizens” are still encouraged to be patriotic, pledge allegiance, and blindly follow our ruthless King George into a “war without end against terrorism.” But be advised: World War III has already begun. Americans remain hypnotized, and are blind to the truth. We cheer the Bush gang on, as they rob, plunder, pillage, and kill with impunity.

We march in goose step formation as our nation is being swiftly and quietly dismantled, in preparation for absorption into a worldwide police state. The functions of U.S. government agencies are being replaced by NGOs and privatizing. America as we remember it, is being demolished to make way for the New World Order.

If the Elite’s plans succeed, America will cease to exist as a sovereign and independent nation within ten years. The old U.S. will be merged with Mexico and Canada to form the North American Union. This is a primary goal of NAFTA.

If allowed to proceed, the ruling elite will go on to perpetrate even more horrendous crimes against nature, humanity, and all the nations of Earth. These are the harsh truths of living in the Illuminati’s New World Order. This is an outcome that must be prevented.

To stop the tyrants requires unity, leadership, farsighted planning, and total commitment. But before we join the revolution, we must learn from our past mistakes. It is important for us to understand how civilizations can plunge so quickly into decay and depravity. Remember the truism: “Those who ignore history, are destined to repeat it.”

In the past hundred years alone, we have witnessed the rise and fall of Francisco Franco, Benito Mussolini, Adolf Hitler, Josif Stalin, Ho Chi Minh, Pol Pot, Yahya Khan, Idi Amin, Ion Antonescu, Gheoghe Gheorghiu-Dej, Radovan Karadzic, Babrac Kemal, Mao Zedong, Slobodan Milosevic, Saddam Hussain, and now our very own King George II. These genocidal maniacs were responsible for many millions of deaths. Their policies and methods were so unspeakably brutal, that our minds cannot fathom them as members of the same species as ourselves.

How do tyrants gain such power in the first place? When a nation peaks and begins to decline, it is usually the result of corruption from within. Leaders of government, industry, and commerce turn their backs on those who rely on them, and use their offices and positions to steal and plunder. The ruling elite encourage this criminal behaviour, which facilitates the conditions necessary for a hostile takeover.

The elite then stage a major destabilizing event to rattle the masses. This subterfuge is usually blamed upon the tyrant's enemies, and shifts the blame away from the perpetrators. Then the elite seize control as self-appointed saviors.

Examples of these staged events include: Hitler's Reichstag fire, Roosevelt's Pearl Harbor, the assassination of President Kennedy, the attempted assassination of Ronald Regan, and more recently Bush's September 11 attacks.

"Why of course the people don't want war. Why should some poor slob on a farm want to risk his life in a war when the best he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece? Naturally the common people don't want war: neither in Russia, nor in England, nor for that matter in Germany. That is understood.

But, after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a Democracy, or a Fascist dictatorship, or a Parliament, or a Communist Dictatorship.

Voice or no voice, the ...people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy.. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the Peacemakers for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

Hermann Goering - Nazi Reichsmarschal

Once firmly in control of the government, police, military, transportation and resources, the tyrants quickly capitalize on the fears of the masses. They declare martial law, suspend elections, and abolish any laws that impede them. At this point the elite promptly abandon their postures of benevolence, and show their true colors. Ethics, morality, legality, and basic human rights vanish overnight. These give way to iron-fisted totalitarian rule.

To insure their success, the elite secure, and consolidate all private and public resources: food, water, medicine, fuel, energy, raw materials, etc. Then they begin rationing these resources, thereby gaining another control mechanism over the masses. If a particular region strikes or revolts, necessities are withheld from them until the resistance fails. Justice vanishes, the media is muzzled, intellectuals are suppressed and organizers of the opposition are hunted down, imprisoned in work camps, or executed.

Then come the jack-booted totalitarian police, dedicated to protecting the interests of the ruling elite, suppressing dissent, and controlling the masses. Hitler's Gestapo, Saddam Hussain's Special Security Service (SSS), and now the Department of Homeland Security (Who's name, coincidentally, translates nearly verbatim to Germany's S.S., the "Geheime Staatspolizei"- or "Homeland Police.").

This is how a nations freedoms, rights and property are stolen. Today we are witnessing these same methods being implemented throughout the United States. These methods are backed up by powerful technologies undreamed of by historic tyrants.

Our rights of privacy have been compromised in many ways: monitoring of internet usage and personal email, increased video and satellite surveillance; the implementation of RFID tags; shared IRS, NSA, FBI and Homeland Security databases, public servants encouraged to snoop on other citizens. Even our library and medical records are wide open to government snooping.

By sifting numerous consolidated databases with sophisticated 'data mining' technologies, and by monitoring every byte of information we access on the internet in real time, very few details about us remain confidential.

Intelligence agencies such as the F.B.I., C.I.A., N.S.A. and Homeland Security can quickly identify terrorists, dissenters, protesters and enemies of the state, track targets and deal with them at will. And remember: They now have very little accountability.

These are just a few of the policies presently in place that are destroying our privacy. Our lives are now wide open to scrutiny. To deny this is to ignore the plain facts. Without privacy dissent becomes difficult, and it is hard to defend ourselves from the tyrants.

Our freedoms of movement have also been severely diminished. In September of 2003 the new Terrorist Threat Integration Center began examining all of our air travel itineraries. Each traveler is then assigned a travel security code. The object of this rating system is to identify potential terrorists prior to transit. In a perfect world this might be a good idea, but the horror stories coming out of airports are thought provoking: mistaken identities, being detained without due process, refused boarding privileges, strip searches, public humiliation, etc. Having the wrong code assigned insures trouble for travelers: multiple searches and interrogations, and detention. With these new systems being implemented, it is difficult for dissenters to be able to maintain a low profile, and stay below Homeland Security's radar.

There is a saying that "absolute power corrupts absolutely." As a police state gains power over a country and its' former institutions are assimilated, the ruling elite increasingly prey upon the populace. The brutality of Saddam Hussain and his sadistic sons are not uncommon among tyrants. This downward spiral continues on and on.

Just when it seems that things cannot get any worse, an amazing shift begins to occur. The ruling elite, bloated by excess and debauchery, begin to be weakened through internal conflict. Alliances forged in hatred, fear, and greed begin to unravel. The elite struggle furiously with each, competing for dominance. Faced with growing opposition from within their own ranks, they become paranoid, and old alliances start to fall apart. Before long, the tyrannical elite are like sharks in a feeding frenzy, feasting upon each other. At this stage, the enemies of the elite see their foes weakened condition, and unite with the commoners to depose them.

Today, we are starting to see the first cracks appear in the elite's facade. Their lies, crimes and atrocities are even being exposed by formerly-silent segments of the mainstream media. Just one year ago, similar criticisms of the Bushites would elicited severe retaliation. Now, revelations are broadcast on an almost daily basis. Alternative media coverage of their crimes has also gained a huge audience.

The popularity of Democratic presidential candidates, widespread opposition to the Patriot Act, and victories against the elite, such as the culture jamming of the WTO in Cancun, are evidence that a rebellion against the globalists is growing stronger. These trends are beginning to disrupt the ruling elite's plans for world domination.

When we get start to get depressed about the dismal state of our world, it is important to remain optimistic. Remember Ghandi's statement that "tyrants never last." Repeat it like a mantra if necessary.

Millions are awakening to the truth, and there is great strength in numbers. When we stand in unity, hold fast to our ideals, and fight for what is right, hope thrives. Many of us have awakened, and stand firmly opposed to the tyrants and their dark plans.

It is inevitable that the New World Order will be steadily weakened by conflict. Before long, they will be besieged by all those that they have brutally oppressed. The elite's countless enemies will see their opportunity, seize the moment, and jump into the fray. Many of us will participate in the dismantling of this evil global empire.

Tyrants take note, as the old saying holds true: "Be careful who you step upon on your way up the ladder of success, they will be waiting for you on your way back down."

In the long run, good eventually triumphs over evil. During their brutal reigns tyrants may seem invincible, but in the final reckoning they are always overthrown. When good people unite heart-to-heart against a common foe, nothing can withstand them.

Choices

"In Germany, they first came for the communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a trade unionist. Then they came for the Catholics and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Catholic. Then they came for me -- and by that time there was nobody left to speak up."

-Martin Niemöller

The five options

As individuals, what can we do? The options are limited, but are clearly defined. Let us consider each one briefly.

1. We can choose to submit and join the New World Order, thereby trading in our freedom, ethics and spiritual integrity for temporary comfort, and the illusion of security.

2. We can attempt to work within existing systems to enact positive change. Although it is true that many of these systems have become corrupted, some positive change can still be accomplished by working within them.

3. We can relocate, or even vanish. Options include: moving to a hideaway, changing our identity, or even emigrating to another country. When the crises passes, we would have the option of returning home to resume our lives.

4. We can rise up in armed revolt against the tyrants. Although this choice was recommended by our founding father, it should never be a first choice. Revolution is a hellish and bloody business, and should not be seriously considered unless all other options have been exhausted.

5. We can oppose the tyrants through enlightened, nonviolent and constructive means: preparedness, sustainable lifestyle changes, noncooperation, boycotts, strikes, protests, culture jamming, civil disobedience, reeducation of the masses, support of alternative media, and by many others. This is the most rational choice, and is the focus of this book.

These are our five basic choices. Each has its own risks and benefits. To successfully depose the ruling elite, it is likely that we will have to employ several of these options. To accomplish these goals, and to insure our safety, we may have to live like wolves in sheep's clothing—bleating with the sheep by day, but howling like wolves at night.

There is a one final choice, one that many will choose by default: to do nothing at all. This is an option for idiots and cowards. It places one's power into the hands of the tyrants. By doing so, we abdicate our right to choose for ourselves.
